
New look for website

Hello All!

Well almost a year after I said I'd do it.... I've done it. Yes, revised the website around the way people are actually using it. So we've got Race Results and sailing news near the top, then weather, then, well, other stuff. All wrapped up in a new design that looks a little smarter than the old one.

I hope you like the result. Any questions or comments? Let me know!
